

Carrie Peters

Carrie is a provincial strength coach at the Canada Games Sport for Life Centre, working with a range of sports and athlete abilities, from developmental to high performance. Community program facilitator fostering physical activity experiences for marginalized community members, including, St Amant, Addictions Foundation of Manitoba, Salvation Army, and Argyle School. Current Masters of Science student at the University of Manitoba, Faculty of Kinesiology and Recreation Management. Studying in the Perceptual Motor Integration Lab, looking at how we can use sensorimotor integration to improve movement performance in both typically developing and special populations. Currently certified as a Strength and Conditioning Coach through the NSCA.

