

CALL FOR MANITOBA GAMES REGIONAL CHEF DE MISSION

The Regional Chef de Mission position is the primary link working directly with all Manitoba Games sports to meet Sport Manitoba's pre-Games and Games time regional logistic requirements. Please refer to the position description for more information.

Interested candidates should possess the following attributes:

- Willingness to make a strong 4- month commitment to the program and devote full time attention during the week of the games
- Ability to function in a fast-paced multi-faceted environment for extended periods with limited down time
- Thorough knowledge of the regional sport delivery system
- Experience as a volunteer, preferably in sport
- Strong interpersonal, communication and customer service skills
- Strong organizational, problem solving and multitasking skills
- Ability to work independently and as a supportive team player
- Valid driver's license
- All successful applicants will be required to complete Sport Manitoba's screening procedures including Criminal Record Check with Vulnerable Sector Search and Child Abuse Registry Check.
- Be available during the week of the Games August 8-15, 2020

All regional Chef de Mission positions are a volunteer position with a paid honorarium along with reimbursement of approved expenses for use of personal vehicle and cell phone, games time travel, accommodations and meal allowance, Manitoba Games clothing and other Chef de Mission benefits.

Deadline for application is February 28, 2020
